

Russia to Sign Cyprus Aid Contract

MOSCOW, Sept. 24 (AP)—The Soviet Union will sign an agreement "in four or five days" to supply weapons to Cyprus, Greek Cypriot foreign minister Andreas Arouzous said today.

Arouzous told newsmen the Soviet help will be "free and disinterested."

The Greek Cypriot official, who has been hiding—allegedly with Soviet officials—for weeks, declined to give the amount and type of aid Russia will give.

However, Arouzous said the Russian aid will include "economic aspects."

Greek Cypriot foreign minister Andreas Arouzous is expected soon for final talks.

Dynamite Has Destroyed 2 Negro Homes

By United Press International

Two Negro homes in Birmingham, Ala., were destroyed Wednesday night by dynamite, police said.

The homes, located on a street in the city's central business district, were destroyed by a single stick of dynamite.

The second explosion occurred at the home of Matthew Jackson, who is situated on highway 20 a few miles outside of Birmingham. There was little damage to the wooden structure.

The Negro leaders said Jackson had not been active in the desegregation drive which started last year and could offer no explanation of the attack.

Nobody was in Garner's home at the time of the explosion and there were no injuries from either blast.

McComb police refused to comment on either incident, but the FBI confirmed they were investigating them.

In another racial development, U. S. supreme court Justice Hugo Black, acting on a justice department request, Wednesday suspended a federal court order requiring enforcement of the public accommodations section of the civil rights law.

The suspended order was by a three-judge federal district court in Birmingham, Ala., which had declared the public accommodations section did not apply to businesses not engaged in interstate commerce, and forbade its enforcement.

Signs

Harding's complaint that his signs on private land had been torn down, except to say that it is a misdemeanor to put them up on private land without written permission of the owners.

Smyle said he believes the law prohibiting signs on private land is a right-of-way "has had a beneficial effect."

"We've almost gotten rid of the debris of the last ten years," he said.

State highway Engineer Ella Mathes said after receiving the complaint from Harding, he checked with highway department district offices.

He said he was told that after contacting numerous party representatives and informing them of the law, highway personnel had removed three of Harding's signs from private land in the Pocatello area and two in the Mountain Home area.

Mathes said the signs were taken to highway department maintenance sheds and party officials were told where they could be found.

"I don't know of any place where we've taken anything from private land," he said.

Mathes said the department was in the process of removing signs from private land.

BYNOPSIS AND AGRICULTURAL HIGHLIGHTS

On the surface weather map there is a high pressure system extending from a center several hundred miles off the Washington coast inland to Idaho and western Montana and then southward to the Central Plains states. The pattern at higher levels is much the same with winds at intermediate altitudes blowing from the north or northwest over Idaho and eastern Oregon.

The air over the region has gradually become warmer and drier during the past three days. Only a trace of rain was reported during the past 24 hours and that was at a station in western Washington.

Maximum temperatures Wednesday ranged from the high 60s in the upper Snake river plains to the mid 80s in the valleys along the Oregon-Idaho border. Low readings this morning ranged from 20 degrees at Fairfield, the only sub-freezing reading, to 48 degrees at the Boise air terminal. Highs Wednesday afternoon reached 74-80 in the Snake river valley, 70-75 in the area, but in general they were somewhat lighter than in the preceding day. Skies have been mostly clear the past 24 hours or more and promise to remain so through the day. Tonight and Friday should bring some cloudiness which will be of the high, thin variety over most of the region.

Temperatures are expected to rise in the 70s and 80s in the agricultural areas of southern Idaho with light to moderate winds this afternoon. Temperatures will be above freezing tonight except in the upper Snake river valley. Friday's maximum readings should again be in the 70s and 80s. The outlook for Saturday is for continued lower temperatures.

For the next two days, at least, farm operations can continue under favorable weather conditions with mostly sunny skies, temperatures normal or above for the season, light to moderate winds and no threat of rain.

Guard Unit to Build Bridge Near Riggins

BOISE, Sept. 24 (AP)—Gov. Robert E. Smylie declared yesterday an emergency exists concerning the washed out Riggins bridge and sent the Idaho army national guard into action for a temporary structure.

Smylie told newsmen an army guard truck was en route to Camp Roberts, Calif., for pontoon to temporarily replace a focus on the Salmon river bridge washed out in a flash flood last June.

The governor's order was made known in a proclamation in which the guard was instructed to transport and install the pontoon over the river six miles east of Riggins where a small community has been stranded since a flood roared from Lake Creek and crashed the bridge.

The U.S. forestry service, owners of the bridge and road, has contracted for a new permanent bridge but construction is not expected to be completed until next year, Smylie said.

He said 25 families, including about 15 school-age children, have been stranded across the Salmon river from Riggins. The only route out of the community now is over a mountain trail now to McCall, a distance of about 50 miles, Smylie said.

The governor said he wasn't sure when the pontoons would be in place. He said the guard has been instructed to pursue the project with "all due speed."

Realtors Are Opposed to Rights Law

LAS VEGAS, Sept. 24 (AP)—Opposition to the civil rights law expressed in a resolution at the joint Utah-Nevada realtors convention yesterday.

The resolution said parts of the civil rights law allow government interference to the extent that personal freedom is diminished. The realtors declared, "The individual American property owner, regardless of race, color, or creed, must be allowed, under law, the right of privacy, choice of friends, to occupy and sell property without government interference, to be free of laws giving special privilege to any group, to maintain congenial surroundings, and to determine acceptability and desirability of any prospective buyer or tenant."

Workmen File Suit Against Safeway Firm

PORTLAND, Sept. 24 (AP)—Eighteen Safeway warehousemen of Safeway Stores, Inc., filed suit against the company in district court yesterday alleging the store chain owed them $11,202 under a teamster union contract.

The complaint said the company owes the money to a teamsters union pension trust fund under a contract agreement of May 5.

The complaint said the company paid the required amounts into the fund for employees covered by the company-sponsored pension plan, but refused to contribute money for employees not covered under the company plan. The complaint was filed by Attorney Charles Huppe, Helena.

Udall to Float On Teton River

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24 (AP)—Interior Secretary Stewart Udall will float down the Teton river in Idaho Saturday.

Rep. Ralph Harding, who announced the trip, said he and Ohio Congressman Mike Kilman would accompany the secretary. Harding said Udall will address a Democratic dinner Saturday night in Teton.

Harding said the purpose of the trip by Udall to Idaho is to visit the proposed site of the Lower Teton dam.

Probe Starts In Illinois on NFO Action

CHICAGO, Sept. 24 (AP)—Illinois state police today beefed up patrols on highways used by livestock trucks and a wide-ranging investigation was started in Iowa in an attempt to stop violence connected with the National Farmers' Organization market rebellion.

Several NFO members have been arrested during the group's five-week effort to raise on-the-spot livestock prices by withholding cattle, sheep and hogs from market.

Most of the violence and sabotage reported during the campaign has not been definitely linked with the NFO. But the incidents have been directed mainly against farmers and truckers not participating in the NFO holding action.

Illinois Gov. Otto Kerner ordered the state police to "increase its vigilance on highways where livestock is known to be transported." Livestock trucks carrying cattle to market have been damaged by gunfire and tire-shooting devices.

Mother, Child Killed in Crash

BLANDING, Utah, Sept. 24 (AP)—A 28-year-old Blanding woman and her 10-year-old daughter were killed last night in a one-car rollover in southeastern Utah.

Mrs. Annie Alice Valdez and her daughter Jodie were killed when the car left state highway 47 eight miles north of Blanding and rolled over.

Mrs. Valdez' son, Shawn, 3, was taken to San Juan county hospital where he was listed in critical condition.

Highway patrol trooper Claud Lacy investigated the accident. The highway patrol said cause of the accident was not determined.

plans to issue subpoenas to about 35 persons he wants to question about fence cutting, the pictures and threats. He said the continuing investigation would be on the order of a grand jury probe.

Today is '65 Pontiac Day.

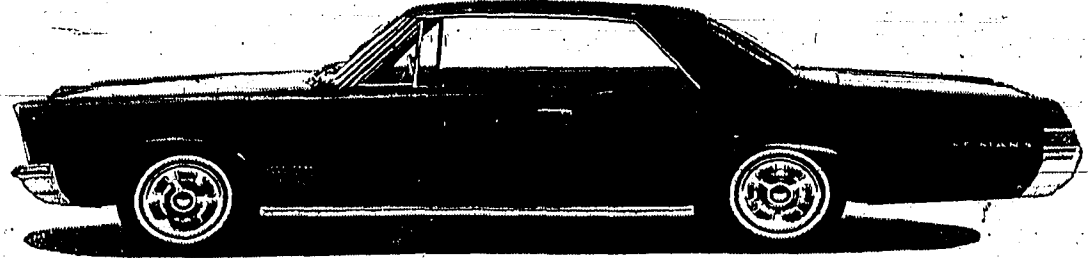

1965: The year of the Quick Wide-Tracks

What do we mean by "quick"? Just this: A new-all-over Pontiac offering a new Turbo Hydra-Matic—the silkier, swiftest-shifting automatic transmission you ever touched a toe to; eager new Trophy V-8 power; new steering agility; a surer-footed Wide-Track ride. And a new Pontiac Tempest that's become even more of a Pontiac with new style, new length and Pontiac-quick reflexes to match. You never knew cars could be so beautiful, and so keenly alert to your touch. This is your year to drive a Wide-Track—quick!

'65 Pontiac Pontiac—How does the success car auto itself for 1965? Beautifully, just beautifully. But this Pontiac has no intention of getting by on looks alone, though it could. So there's new quickness, Pontiac style. A new nimbleness. New fuel savings. A smooth, easy new ride. Drive a '65 Pontiac and see how one success leads to another.

'65 Pontiac Tempest—Tempest's even more of a Pontiac now, and what more could a car be than that! The '65 Tempest looks like a Pontiac, as you can see. Rides like a Pontiac on Wide-Track. Goes like a Pontiac, too: a 140-hp six is standard. Or you can get a quick V-8, up to 285 hp. You'll wonder how we can keep the price so low on so much car.

State Grange Master Talks At King Hill

KING HILL, Sept. 24—Ermil Jerome, state Grange master, spoke at Grange organization at the booster night meeting of the King Hill Grange Tuesday night. He stressed the word booster which, he said, means to boost the Grange all the way. Kenneth Jones, local Grange master, read the national Grange master's welcome.

Arthur Greer gave a reading and Sheri Ruberry sang a solo, accompanied by Mrs. R. I. Barnes. Karl Anderson gave the history of the local group which was organized in 1922. The Rev. J. T. Barnes reviewed projects completed this past year.

Mrs. Ira Kistler, Gooding, state Grange lecturer, spoke on the lecturer's work during the year. Mrs. Arthur Greer announced that Elmore county Pomona Grange will be held Oct. 8 at the Elks Lodge hall in Mountain Home with Mariposa Grange, Mountain Home, as hosts.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jerome, Kuna, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Dummer, Gooding; Mr. and Mrs. Myron Dill, Clenna Ferry; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Egan, Santa Jose, Calif.; Mrs. Neta Woodruff and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Myers, King Hill.

U. S. Missile Shot-Termed Successful

CAPE KENNEDY, Sept. 24 (AP)—Minuteman 2, first new U. S. strategic missile to begin testing in more than two years, scored a "textbook" success on its maiden flight today, hurling a new hardened warhead to a target 6,000 miles away.

The three-stage missile, being developed to strike deeper into potential enemy territory with extreme accuracy and pushbutton reaction time, darted out of a 40-foot underground silo at 11:04 a.m. EST.

Trailing a thick plume of white smoke, the rocket pitched sharply onto a southeast heading and sped toward the South Atlantic bulldoze off Ascension Island.

The air force reported the sleek missile met all test objectives on the initial flight, the first of 36 planned in a program to develop Minuteman 2 as a major deterrent weapon expected to be in service by the mid-1970's. An official said "it flew according to the book."

Like its predecessor, Minuteman 1, the improved missile will be capable of being fired within 30 seconds after the signal is given. Minuteman 2 is designed for a range of nearly 8,000 miles which will bring targets in Red China and southern Russia within its reach. These areas are beyond the maximum 6,000-mile range of Minuteman 1.

A total of 650 Minuteman 1 missiles now are stationed in blastproof underground silos at bases in the northern United States, with the number scheduled to reach 600 in a few months.

Goldwater to Meet With Rockefeller

ALBANY, N.Y., Sept. 24 (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller is putting down the welcome mat here for Sen. Barry Goldwater, the Republican presidential candidate.

Rockefeller, who has said little in support of the man who defeated him in the fight for the party's top nomination, last night invited Goldwater and his wife Peggy to visit the governor's mansion Friday.

Rockefeller previously had promised to appear with Goldwater at the state office building. No other contact between the two had been scheduled.

The New York Republican campaign committee announced last night that "Goldwater's busy schedule has been altered to include sufficient time to see the mansion and meet with the governor."

The Arizona senator and his wife are scheduled to arrive at Albany county airport at 10:35 a.m. and will go directly to the mansion. Goldwater will speak about noon. He will be introduced by Rockefeller.

Central U. S. Is Chilled by Winds

By United Press International
Cold north winds chilled the central part of the country today and sent showers skimming down the Mississippi valley and across the Appalachians.

Hurricane Gladys was taking a turn for the better after heading out to sea after threatening the northeast coast. Light rain fell along the New England shoreline and winds were light.

Temperatures dipped into the 40s through the upper Midwest behind the mass of cool, crisp air from Canada. Winds were gusty at 30 miles an hour in Chicago during the night.

Called for him to be out of town Friday, but his schedule was changed.

New Premier of East Germany Has Been Named

BERLIN, Sept. 24 (AP)—Will Stoph, a former bricklayer and corporal in the Nazi army, today was named premier of communist East Germany.

He also was named deputy to party boss Walter Ulbricht in the state council, highest executive organ of East Germany.

Stoph, 50, succeeds Otto Grotewohl, who died of a stroke last Monday.

Stoph's appointment was announced by the official news agency ADN and came as no surprise. He had been helping premier since 1960, carrying out the job of Grotewohl, who had been ill for four years, reportedly with leukemia.

We changed the Buick a lot this year. And you may never be the same again yourself.

We doubt you'll want to be the same. Not once you set eyes on our new Buicks. On the Buick Special and the Skylark. The LeSabre, Electra 225, Riviera. And on the sleek, modified fastback of the wild, wilder, Wildcat in the picture.

True, there's a new high-style touch. But that's hardly all. Engineering still has the emphasis. It's a Buick tradition. So are the extras Buick spends a little extra on. Like finned brake drums that do a little better. And smoother drivelines. A tuned suspension to smooth ribcage roads. Now add Buick's Super Turbine transmissions—and you have an idea of what Buick owners have always liked about Buick. We think you'll feel the same.

Wouldn't you really rather have a Buick

Pilot Asserts Goldwater Is Best Choice

Increasing interest among Western pilots in support of Barry Goldwater in the presidential election was reported here Wednesday by Kenneth Arnold, Boise businessman, who as a fire control pilot in 1947 is credited with reporting the first flying saucer.

Arnold, whose business keeps him flying to five Western states, termed Goldwater a "pilot's president."

On the underside of the wing of his private plane, Arnold has painted the Goldwater slogan, "AU-H2O-64," on the opposite wing from the federal identification number.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24 (AP)—The emphasis on taxes is likely to change next year. For most taxpayers the pressure will be applied closer to home. And the chances are that one way or another most will pay as much, if not more, in taxes than this year.

Political parties are promising more federal tax cuts. In Washington the question will be what taxes and how much.

But at many a state capital and city hall across the nation the search will be pressed still harder for more kinds of taxes or higher rates or more handouts from the federal government, or more borrowing.

Some state and local officials are hoping the federal authorities will release some forms of taxation to them. This would let the local collectors spread into fields now held by Washington. Others are plugging for more aid to states and communities from the federal tax collection which they think will rise considerably if rates aren't cut further.

Both President Johnson and Treasury Secretary Dillon have proposed that next year federal excise taxes be revised and some lowered or dropped. Dillon said, "We have about 15 categories of such taxes on the books today, and their labyrinthine complexity requires, not the random repeal of a few taxes, but a thorough-going revision based on a comprehensive study of them."

The President says some excise tax cuts, yet to be spelled out, will be proposed to congress if he is elected.

The Republican candidate, Barry Goldwater, proposes further cuts in individual and corporate income tax rates. As a goal, he suggests a 25-per-cent cut for individuals spread over five years.

News Around Idaho

IDAHO FALLS, Sept. 24 (AP)—Between 1,200 and 1,500 elementary and high school teachers from east Idaho will hear nationally recognized educators as part of a two-day Idaho Education association convention in Idaho Falls Oct. 8 and 9. Reid W. Smith, president of the IWA's 8th district, said that Frances Kapple, Washington, D. C. U. S. commissioner of education, would address the teachers.

POCATELLO, Sept. 24 (AP)—Anyone who needs a doctor in Pocatello Saturday will have to call the Bannock county sheriff's office. The doctors won't be there. They will be at the annual picnic of the Southwestern Idaho Medical auxiliary at a recreation area south of Pocatello. Because there is no telephone service to the area, a walkie-talkie system will be used to summon any doctor needed in Pocatello.

POCATELLO, Sept. 24 (AP)—Eleven Idaho organizations today registered protest against a new wheat grading standard introduced by the U. S. department of agriculture. The protests came this morning at a meeting called by the Grain Division of USDA to gather information on effects of the new, tighter standards for grain trade. In effect, the new wheat grades reduce the amount of nonmarketable materials permitted in wheat. The action in Pocatello was one of three aimed for the Pacific Northwest because of complaints received from wheat interests since the new grading system went into effect June 1.

BOISE, Sept. 24 (AP)—A preliminary hearing for James Thompson, charged with first degree murder in the shooting of St. Anthony Police Chief Kenneth C. Brower last Aug. 18 after the suspect over placing of a cattle guard on a boundary line, got under way yesterday. Probate Judge William Hunkinson was presiding. Four witnesses for the state were called. They included Merrill J. Ross, Grover Garrett, Dr. Robert Klump and Sheriff Jess Butts. Ross and Garrett were assisting Brower in installing a cattle guard. Dr. Klump was the physician who attended Brower following the shooting.

BOISE, Sept. 24 (AP)—Three laws passed by congress affecting use of land "will all work to diminish the use of public land in Idaho," the House of Representatives said today. The laws, passed in the House in the past 50 years, one creates a land and water conservation fund, another set up a public land law review commission and the third creates a wilderness system. "The federal government now controls nearly 65 per cent of the land in Idaho, and these bills will result in a lessened use of our public land," White said.

POCATELLO, Sept. 24 (AP)—An Idaho State University faculty screening committee has been given the green light to start the search for a new president. Board President Elton Hampton, Genesee, and board member Ezra Hawkes, Pocatello, authorized the action. They said the committee to select a new president would have five members with the board making the final selection. About 100 applied for the position the last time it was vacant. Hampton said the board expects to have a new president before the start of another academic year in September, 1965, or perhaps earlier. He said the choice will be made as soon as possible. Dr. Zoumal Walker resigned to become dean of students at Sonoma State college, Calif.

IDAHO FALLS, Sept. 24 (AP)—The executive manager of the Associated Taxpayers of Idaho says that the state's property tax assessment ratios must be equalized, and that the owners of many properties in the state should be taxed more. The statement was made yesterday by Max Yost, Boise, in a talk to the convention of the Idaho Assessors association. He suggested a uniform assessment rate of 25 per cent with a period of three years for it to be put into effect. "Perhaps everyone could support this," Yost said. He added that the courts will direct equalization if the legislature doesn't.

DOWNEY, Sept. 24 (AP)—A fund to aid the widow of a slain Idaho lawman has grown to $1,551. Joe Gomez, Downey, has been soliciting funds for the widow and five children of Daniel Lee Wood. The man was killed July 19 in a gun battle with burglars. Gomez said he has combed most of Bannock county. He said people from as far away as Spokane have contributed to the fund, and money has come from several Utah points, including Logan, and Pleasant Grove. Another fund, managed by the Pocatello chapter of the American Red Cross, has collected over $200.

POCATELLO, Sept. 24 (AP)—Probate Judge Irvin Robertson has today dismissed the case against a man charged with operating as an outliner and guide without a state license. The accused, Harold Hanson, North Fork, told the judge Tuesday that the licensing board had taken no action on his requests in the past year for renewal of his license. Hanson was arrested earlier this month on a complaint signed by Jay Taylor, executive secretary of the Idaho Outfitters and Guides' Licensing board. Judge Robertson said the board was remiss in not acting on Hanson's license application. He said the board is required by law to act on applications within 30 days.

POCATELLO, Sept. 24 (AP)—Authorities held off filing charges yesterday against two men they say beat a guard and attempted to escape from the Bannock county jail on Monday. Sheriff H. E. Parker and county prosecutor Hugh C. Magnus said neither man is going anywhere. One, Carlotta Lee Pitt, 18, is being held without bond along with five other Chicagoans on a charge of first degree murder in July's slaying of Downey town Marshal Daniel Woodland. The other, Jimmie Earl Adams, 18, Pocatello, has begun serving a five-year term at the Idaho state penitentiary for beating an officer. Parker said Adams and Pitt beat and choked jailer Leon Pratt in the escape attempt.

BOISE, Sept. 24 (AP)—The former chairman of the Shoshone-Bannock tribal business council at Fort Hall asked U. S. district court yesterday to restore him to a position on the council. He also said two members of the council are serving illegally, complained that three of them have failed to consider petitions for their removal, and accused five of them of usurping the tribal judicial system. U. S. district Judge Ray McNeel scheduled an Oct. 10 hearing at Pocatello for the five council members named in Boyer's petition to appear and show cause why he shouldn't be restored to the council.

Utah Denies Charge of GOP Support

SAIT LAKE CITY, Sept. 24 (AP)—David O. McKay, 61-year-old president of the Mormon church, denied today a statement of endorsement attributed to him by a Republican candidate for the U. S. senate.

Ernest L. Wilkinson, seeking the senate seat held by Democrat Frank Moss, told reporters that President McKay endorsed the GOP ticket.

McKay said later he made no such endorsement and indicated he couldn't even if he wanted to because he is head of the LDS church.

But a spokesman present when President McKay met with Rep. William E. Miller, Republican candidate for vice president, quoted the church leader:

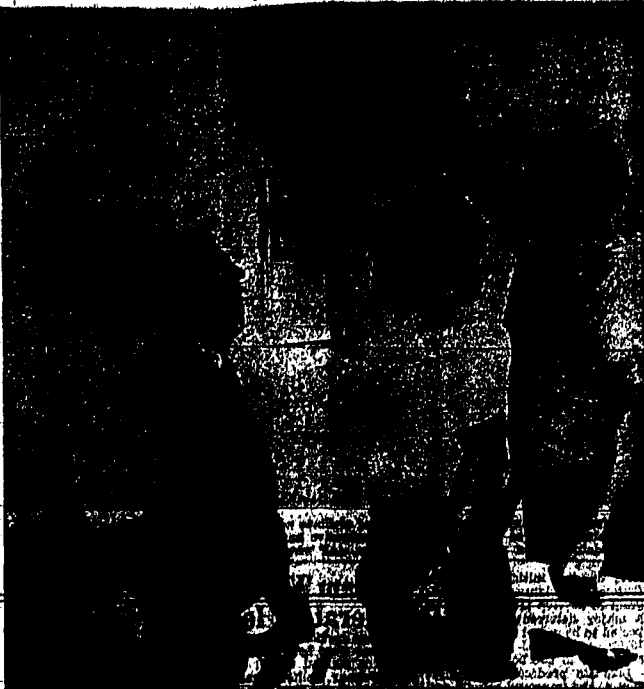

"You can put me down as one favoring the success of the Republican party at Pocatello and other GOP office-seekers visited President McKay in Salt Lake City during Miller's campaign swing through northern Utah."

Wilkinson was asked by a reporter if McKay had made any endorsement of the Republican ticket.

"I asked that very question," said Wilkinson. "Mr. McKay said 'we certainly do,' and President McKay added, 'she has spoken for me.'"

"I did not say that," McKay said when he was told how he had been quoted.

Reporters were not able to talk directly with McKay, who has been ill in recent weeks. His illness was relieved by Clara Middleton, his personal secretary.

Only Survivor of Famed Train Wreck of Old 97 Dies

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Sept. 24 (AP)—On a cold frosty morning in the month of September, the clouds were hanging low.

"Ninety-seven pulled out of the Washington station."

"Like an arrow shot from a bow, the Old 97 came."

Those are the opening lines of one of the most popular of all Vaudeville songs at the turn of the century, "The Wreck of the Old 97."

The last survivor of that storied train wreck, Jennings J. Dunlap, died at the Hermitage Methodist home here yesterday at the age of 58.

Dunlap was a mail clerk on the Southern railway's speedy Washington-to-Atlanta express on the fateful morning of Sept. 27, 1903.

Old 97 left Washington on time, but fell behind schedule at Moore, Va. The engineer got his orders: Get her in on time.

"He looked at his black and greasy finger."

"And said above a little more coal."

"For when we cross that White Oak mountain."

"You'll see Old 97 roll."

The youngsters who gathered along the tracks to wave greetings and watch the train go by had never seen Old 97 so fast.

The engineer did not even cut back the throttle on the tricky stretch between Lynchburg and Danville.

"It's a mighty rough road from Lynchburg to Danville."

"And Lima it's a three-mile grade."

It was on this grade that he lost his average.

"And you see what a jump he made."

At White Oak mountain near Danville Old 97 came roaring down the grade toward a curve just before the tracks crossed the 75-foot Cherrystone creek trestle.

"They were going down the grade making 50 miles an hour."

"When the whistle broke into a scream."

He was found in the wreck with his head on the trestle.

"And scalded to death with the steam."

The train plunged into the Cherrystone creek ravine, killing nine men and fatally injuring two others. Only Dunlap man unharmed. It happened too fast to be scared," he once said. "In a split second, the train was falling and there were splinters everywhere."

The wreck did not discourage Dunlap. Soon afterward he was back working for the railroad, sorting mail on the new 97 from Washington to Atlanta. He retired in 1946.

Now ladies, you must take warning from this tiny warning. Never speak harsh words to your true loving husbands. For they may leave you and never return.

"Did she ever pull in? No, she never pulled in."

"Old 97 never pulled in."

"For hours and hours the switchman was watching."

"For the train that never pulled in."

The term of the contract shall be from the date of award through completion of work, approximately Dec. 18 of this year.

Envelope bids are to be sent to W. H. Arneson, contracting officer, Cedar Mesa Reservoir and Canal company, route 3, Twin Falls.

Simplot Official To Talk in Buhl

BUIHL, Sept. 24 (AP)—Grant Kilborn, general manager of the Shoshone-Bannock tribal business council, will be the featured speaker for the Chamber of Commerce luncheon meeting on Monday. It was announced at the chamber meeting last week.

Dr. Garth Atwood urged a good attendance at the annual 4-H, PPA fat livestock sale to be held Saturday at the Twin Falls livestock commission company sale grounds.

The Rev. Robert Burchell, Buhl, a member of the county-wide committees working for the promotion of the Twin Falls county junior college district, spoke on the advantages of a junior college in south central Idaho. He was introduced by John Crawford, program chairman.

Girl, 13, Is Engaged to Airman, 21

KING'S LYNN, England, Sept. 24 (AP)—The 13-year-old schoolgirl fiancée of a 21-year-old American airman said yesterday she stole him from an older sister after a day at the beach.

Roselyn Montanaro, whose engagement to Airman Gerald Cunningham, Philadelphia, is approved by her parents, said she first met him two years ago when she was 11.

"But I've only known him to go out with for about two months," said the shapely brunette, who looks more like 17 than 13.

Gerry invited his sister, Marilyn, 16, out to the beach one day and I went with them. Afterward he held my sister he wanted to date me," she said.

"Gerry proposed to me on the waterfront. I was too happy to say anything at the time . . . but I said 'yes' later."

The couple's engagement was announced in local papers. Cunningham, an air policeman, is assigned to a U. S. air force unit based at the Royal air station at Marham near King's Lynn.

Cunningham has declined to discuss the engagement. An air force spokesman said the airman was "on exercise" and could not be reached for comment.

"It's a private affair. Cunningham does not want the matter discussed," the spokesman said.

Roselyn is the daughter of truck driver John Montanaro, a New Yorker who settled in Norfolk, England, after the war and married an English girl.

"Gerry is one of the best," Montanaro told newsmen. "I've taken a liking to him. He's outspoken and sincere but I won't let Roselyn get married until she's at least 17. I gave my consent because she is a sensible girl, grown up for her age and they are obviously both in love."

Roselyn's mother, Vera, said she and her husband were not surprised when they wanted to become engaged.

"We almost expected it. . . We know how they felt about each other," she said.

$555 Collected

Candidates Involved in Campaign Are Beginning to Behave Like Politicians

By MERRIMAN SMITH
WASHINGTON, Sept. 24 (AP)—Politicians involved in the presidential campaign are beginning to behave like politicians. This displeases other politicians who believe if there is to be a slung, it should be cleaned up.

Any student of campaign '64 knows, for example, that Sen. Barry M. Goldwater has called President Johnson a liar. The chief executive in turn obviously regards his opponent as a "raving, ranting demagogue."

Rep. William E. Miller, the Republican vice presidential candidate, has accused the Johnson administration of "Gestapo-state methods" and of dealing in "sleazy, unsubstantiated smears."

Miller's opposite number, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, says the Republicans are pushing a new version of four freedoms, including "the freedom to be sick," "the freedom to be hungry."

These and other less-than-affectionate cross-references by the major candidates Wednesday led Sen. Karl Mundt, R., S.D., to cry out in the Senate against both sides. He pleaded with Johnson and Goldwater to stop "cheap and dirty" language.

"What kind of madness has overtaken these candidates for office?" asked Mundt, who normally yields to few in his partisanship.

"We all know in our hearts that Barry Goldwater is not a raving, ranting demagogue just as we know that President Johnson is not a crook."

Actually this sort of thing happens in every national political campaign. The unusual aspect this year is that it became so bitter so soon. Cries of liar and warmonger ordinarily are not heard from the principals until about mid-October.

What gives the current name-calling a rather quaint quality is that only a short time ago leaders of both camps cast their eyes heavenward and vowed to avoid mud-slinging.

On Sept. 11 the Democratic and Republican national chairmen, John M. Bailey and Dean Burch, jointly endorsed a code of fair campaign practices and signed a pledge to keep the campaign clean.

The code since has proved to be quite flexible and this is what led Mundt to cast himself yesterday in the role of Mr. Clean for '64.

The South Dakota senator said the campaign conducted by Johnson, Goldwater and their running mates was "an insult to the intelligence of the American voters."

Mundt was not the first to be distressed by what the senator called the current "low-level, schoolyard campaign."

"Only last week, Dean Francis Sayer of the Washington national cathedral said in effect that neither candidate was fit for the presidency. The Dean's bishop jumped him on that one, and Mundt added to that tender situation by saying a pulpit was no place from which to throw mud."

As another campaign day closed humbly yesterday, Goldwater and Johnson called each other "reckless." The President said "smear and fear and intolerance are abroad in the land." Johnson also referred to "lurid today and slanders tomorrow."

Weathermen said the typhoon was screaming across Miyazaki prefecture state in southern Kyushu and heading north-northwest, in the general direction of Shikoku, the smallest of Japan's four major islands, and the inland sea.

Weathermen predicted 50-mile winds and rain for the next 24 hours in the Tokyo area.

Over at Republican headquarters, Chairman Burch sent a new GOP youth organization in to battle with the admonition that public suspicion of Johnson's integrity was "a built-in weakness which we can capitalize on."

Burch also hurled the cruelest bolt of all. He called the President "a complete politician."

All this with the balloting still almost six weeks away.

Typhoon Wilda Strikes Japan

TOYOYO, Sept. 24 (AP)—One hundred mile-an-hour winds battered Kagoshima in southern Japan as typhoon Wilda slammed ashore late today. National police listed three persons dead, one missing, 26 injured, more than 450 homes destroyed and two ships sunk.

Weathermen said the typhoon was screaming across Miyazaki prefecture state in southern Kyushu and heading north-northwest, in the general direction of Shikoku, the smallest of Japan's four major islands, and the inland sea.

Weathermen predicted 50-mile winds and rain for the next 24 hours in the Tokyo area.

Lutheran School PTA Meet Is Held

"Building the church through Christian education" was the topic used by Mrs. Tom Moore at the first meeting of the Memorial Lutheran PTA on Tuesday night.

Principal Herbert Elmhaupt introduced the faculty and Mrs. George Conrad presented them with corsages and bouquets.

Lawrence Muhler, president, introduced the new executive board and the committee chairman, Mrs. Glen Thaste will serve as membership chairman. Mrs. William Arndt, rooming mother, Mrs. Conrad, rooming mother, Mrs. Mrs. Leas Ude, program; Mrs. Harvie Lampe, health room; Mrs. George Ottens, magazine; Mrs. John McKay, faculty representative; Mrs. Bernard Hoffman, publicity; and Godfrey Koepplin, budget and finance.

Elmhaupt announced the school has an enrollment of 221 pupils. It will add a beginners' band is being organized and will meet every Tuesday after school. The advanced band will meet Wednesday after school, under the direction of Charles Hatcliffe.

According to Elmhaupt, a new mathematics system is being used in the first five grades.

Koepplin presented the new bumper, which was accepted by Vivian Harvey's sixth grade room. The room received the attendance trophy.

Muhler announced the Cub Scout pack will hold a fair at the school at 8 p.m. Sept. 25. Mrs. Ude presented a movie episode from "This is the Life" series. Refreshments were served.

Insanity Claimed By Oregonian in Wyoming Slaying

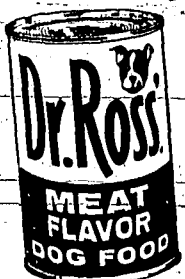

JACKSON, Wyo., Sept. 24 (AP)—A 21-year-old Oregonian who pleaded innocent by reason of insanity yesterday to a charge of first degree murder in the August slaying of two young Maywood, Ill., girls.

Andrew Pixley was arraigned on the first degree murder charge in district court in Jackson.

District Judge H. R. Christman ordered the Dallas, Ore., man taken to the Wyoming state mental hospital at Evanston for 30 to 60 days of observation. He will have a trial date.

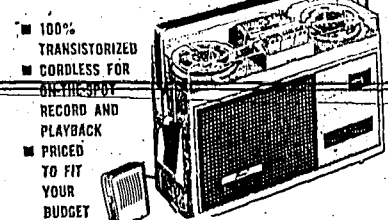

The 21-year-old Deborah McAuliffe and her 8-year-old sister, Cynthia, were found in their Jackson, hotel 7 p.m. Monday, strangled and assaulted. Pixley was found in the room.

Dodge comes on big for '65

What does Dodge do after two record-breaking years in a row? Go for a third. Dodge comes on big for '65, with four brand-new cars that are big, quick, fresh and backed by the strongest warranty* in the business. See them.

'65 Dodge

CHRYSLER
MOTOR CORPORATION

'65 DART: The Dodge-size compact. If you'd like to live a little, we'd like to let you in on something big—Dodge Dart for '65. Big beauty. Big comfort. Big ride. And big savings. At your Dodge dealer's now.

'65 POLARA: Beautiful way to leave the low-price field. Inches bigger and a lot better-looking than anything near the price. With a standard 383 cu. in. V8 that thrives on regular gas. Why settle for less? Ask for Polara.

'65 CORONET: A hot new Dodge at a new lower price. An all-new car that's as roomy as a standard-size Ford or Chevy, yet priced right with Fairlane. Chevelle. With refreshing new styling. Oceans of room. Coronet '65—drive it.

'65 CUSTOM 880: If elegance were spelled in numbers, this would be it. From exclusive 6-window sedan to elegant convertible, this one will wear well with your appreciation of luxury and your sense of good taste.

*HERE'S HOW DODGE'S 5-YEAR, 50,000-MILE ENGINE AND DRIVE TRAIN WARRANTY PROTECTS YOU: Chrysler Corporation confidently warrants all of the following vital parts of its 1965 cars for 5 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first: engine, transmission, drive shaft, universal joints, rear axle and differential, and rear wheel bearings. REQUIRED MAINTENANCE: The following maintenance services are required under the warranty—change engine oil every 3 months or 4,000 miles, whichever comes first; replace oil filter every second oil change; clean radiator and filter every 8 months and replace it every 2 years; add every 8 months fresh coolant; replace spark plugs every 12 months or 10,000 miles. Dealer and request him to certify receipt of such evidence and your car's mileage. Simple enough for such important protection.

Author and World Traveler To Speak Tuesday in Burley

BURLEY, Sept. 24 — Renee Taylor, author and famed world traveler, will be guest speaker at 7 p.m. Tuesday at the first Burley-Rupert Knife and Fork club fall meeting at the Rupert Christian church.

Author of the book "Hunza Land," Miss Taylor led a motion picture caravan to the isolated highlands located in the Himalayan mountains in Pakistan. She is one of few women to reach the fertile valley which is surrounded by mountain peaks 25,000 feet high. The only entrance is over dangerous mountain passes where persons often go single file.

The presidents of Pakistan, Ayub Khan, granted permission for Miss Taylor and the other members in her party to enter the fabulous Hunza land by special permit.

Hunza has a unique geographical position bordering with China, Russia, Tibet and India and is occupying a place of great political importance.

The small kingdom is 60 miles long and in places not even a mile wide. Its people live vigorously and free from disease for 100 years and men and women of 80 look about 40 and there is no childhood illness, the author notes.

Over 30,000 friendly happy people follow the ways of true brotherhood, and hatred, greed, envy and jealousy are foreign to them.

Miss Taylor formerly headed the printing and production department for Whitehorn Publishing company, Long Beach, Calif. She was educated abroad, as in the United States, has been to many of the world's remote places and speaks several languages.

A student of fundamentals of health, youth and beauty was what Miss Taylor told Hunza land where people live to be 120 years old and men of 80 years old play polo, Ulechi, cancer and many other degenerative diseases are unknown in the enchanting Hunza land.

Speaker Club Holds First Fall Meeting

BURLEY, Sept. 24 — The Burley Toastmistress club held its first meeting of the season Tuesday evening in the community room of the Idaho Bank and Trust. Guests were Mrs. Beryl Outley, Mrs. Irene Harker and Mrs. Myrna Marchant. Mrs. Barbara Winkle gave the invocation and led the flag salute.

Tabletop mistress was Mrs. Elmer Ross using the theme, "Sleeping into fall." Mrs. T. Wayne Woodland, Mrs. Olin Baker and Mrs. Lyle Martin received honors for the best tabletop in a three-way tie.

An outline of the history of Toastmistress and the Burley club was given by Mrs. Olin Baker.

Lexicologist was Mrs. P. M. Funk. Toastmistress was Mrs. Baker. Speakers were Mrs. James Martin using the title, "Register your pride" and Mrs. Rulon Blosker speaking on "What the well-dressed woman in 1964-65 will be wearing."

Workshop on introductions was presented by Mrs. P. M. Funk and Mrs. LePage Layton.

It was announced that the Council 9 will meet Oct. 17 in Twin Falls with the Magic club as hostesses.

Mrs. P. M. Funk, president, presided at a short business meeting. The next meeting of the Burley Toastmistress club will be held at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 12 in the community room of the Idaho Bank and Trust.

James Fairchild Paid Last Honor

RUPERT, Sept. 24 — Funeral services for James A. Fairchild were conducted Tuesday at the Aequia LDS chapel by Bishop Eldon V. Stephenson.

Family prayer was given by Vernon Olson and Lola Hanks played the prelude and postlude.

Invocation was given by Lester Bagelman and speakers were Herschel Barnes and Melvin Monour. The singing mothers of the Aequia ward sang two numbers and Kathleen Stocks and Ned Stocks sang one song.

The benediction was given by Harold Caraway and flowers were under the direction of the Aequia Ward Relief society.

Palbearers were Leonard Rasmussen, Peter Hoidt, Jr., David Porter, Victor DalBoglio, Jack P. Duncan, and Ray Staker.

The grave was dedicated by Speed Wall in the Rupert cemetery.

PTA Reception Given at Bliss

BLISS, Sept. 24 — Annual PTA teachers reception was held in conjunction with the first PTA meeting Tuesday at the Bliss school with Mrs. William Exon, president, in charge.

Mrs. Exon introduced Supt. Dale Wakem, who introduced the teaching staff. Each teacher was presented with a gift. Wakem also introduced Sterling Gray and Dean Medley, school trustees.

Mrs. Exon presented a gift to Mrs. Herbert Patterson, Jr., past PTA president. The first and second grade won the room count, with the most parents attending.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Dean Medley, Mrs. Richard Thompson, Mrs. Exon and Mrs. Patterson.

SON BORN

SHOSHONE, Sept. 24 — Mr. and Mrs. Dean Stepanek, Coeur d'Alene, are the parents of a son born Sept. 6. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hancock, north Shoshone. W. R. Ritter, north Shoshone, is maternal great-grandfather and Mrs. Marie Stepanek, Cedar Rapids, Ia., is the paternal grandmother.

Blaine Demo Women to Open Headquarters

HAILEY, Sept. 24 — Members of the Blaine County Democratic Women's club will open election headquarters in the banquet room of the Star cafe two weeks previous to the Nov. 3 general election.

Plans were made at the monthly meeting of the group Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. George Kibbie. Members volunteered to make cookies, which will be served with coffee.

Mrs. Proyer Wilcox, president, announced the county central committee will give a series of meetings, with the first to be a dinner at 8 p.m. Saturday in the Alpine cafe in Ketchum. James B. Donart, former Democratic senate floor leader, will be guest speaker.

Mrs. Lee Berry, chairman of the program committee of the central committee, advises those wishing to make reservations should contact Mrs. Ed Lavery, Ketchum, ticket sales chairman, or the Alpine direct.

The second dinner will be held at the Star cafe in Hailey at 8 p.m. Oct. 10, with turkey and ham served. The program will consist of an open forum conducted by W. G. Pyrah and Merwin Zaherholdt, Democratic senate and representative candidates.

On Oct. 24 an "old-fashioned" political rally will be held at the Bams club in Bellevue, with music by Johnny Lister, Sun Valley.

Carey's meeting will be announced at a later date.

Mrs. Berry announced she had taken in more than $100 in her "apron" project, now completed.

The group voted to dispense with their October meeting to make arrangements for opening

300th

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 24 (AP) — The Kansas City Athletics will honor Rocky Colavito Friday night with 300 silver dollars for having hit 300 home runs during his major league career.

Colavito got No. 300 at Baltimore Sept. 11.

Reward

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 24 (AP) — District Judge Mitchell B. Johns posted a reward of 30 days in jail yesterday for the person who took a pair of sunglasses from his desk.

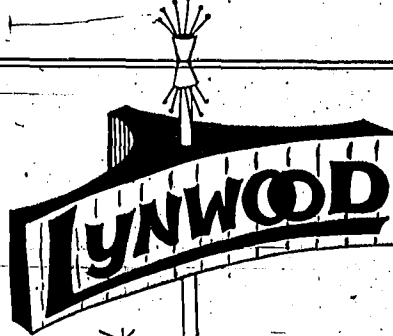

Fairfield Sets Church Outing

FAIRFIELD, Sept. 24 — A picnic is being planned for Sunday by the Community church.

Persons planning to attend are asked to meet at the church at 10:30 a.m. and go to a pasture on the farm of Mrs. Ferdia Carman, one mile west of Soldier.

An outdoor morning worship service is being planned by the Rev. W. James Post, beginning at 11 a.m. A picnic dinner is planned at noon to be followed by games and other activities during the afternoon. The church will be furnishing coffee, soda pop and ice cream. The public is invited.

The church is planning a cleanup day beginning at 9 a.m. Tuesday. The men will clean the outside of the church including the grounds and the women will work on the interior.

AUTHENTIC MEDIEVAL WAGON

This is a reasonably authentic copy of a fifteenth century miracle wagon — called miracle wagons because of the religious dramas performed on them. The wagons traveled throughout Europe gathering audiences and performing their plays.

Because of the importance of this year — the quadrennial of Shakespeare's birth — the wagon was built and adapted to Shakespearean production. It has been in several parades in Magic Valley and took first in the local Independence Day parades in Buhl and Twin Falls.

One of the main purposes of the wagon is to let people know what is happening in Buhl, theoretically speaking. To culminate the summer's Shakespearean activities, the Buhl High School senior class will present Shakespeare's Taming of the Shrew. It will be produced the 12th, 13th and 14th of November in the Buhl High School auditorium under the direction of Aldrich Bowler.

THIS GROUP WILL BE AT THE LYNWOOD SHOPPING CENTER

SATURDAY, SEPT. 26, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Car Damaged When It Hits Calf at Buhl

BUHL, Sept. 24—Damages totaling $800 resulted to a 1959 Ford when it struck a calf and the car overturned on its top at 2:30 a.m. Wednesday one and one-half miles west of Buhl on highway 30.

Herbert E. Goodaby, 37, Hagerman, told investigating officers headlights of an oncoming car momentarily blinded him. When he finally saw the black Angus calf he swerved the car to avoid striking it.

However, he lost control, the car went into a skid, struck the calf, tore out bridge markers and swerved back across to the left side of the highway and overturned in the borrow pit.

Goodaby escaped injury, according to state patrolman Richard Burns. The calf, which was killed, was owned by Aylee Johnson.

Steak Fry Is Held by First Family

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24 (AP)—President and Mrs. Johnson threw a bipartisan steak fry on the White House west terrace last night for retiring members of congress and their wives.

Both the Democratic and Republican leadership were among the 71 guests invited. But two prominent legislators who are leaving congress, Sen. Barry M. Goldwater, R., Ariz., the GOP presidential nominee, and Rep. William E. Miller, his vice presidential running mate, were not invited.

White House Press Secretary George E. Needy said the party was for only those "retiring from public life."

A number of congressmen, including Rep. Carl Vinson, D., Ga., were unable to attend. White House aides said they could not recall when a steak fry had ever been held before at the White House.

Ketchum Hosts Sports Car Event Oct. 10-11

KETCHUM, Sept. 24—The annual Ketchum-Kidder Sports car club event will be held here Oct. 10-11. W. O. Pyrah, manager of the Ketchum-Bun Valley Chamber of Commerce, reported at the chamber meeting Wednesday noon at the Alpine bafe.

Pyrah said the sports car club officials have indicated they want the same arrangements as last year. A cocktail hour and banquet is planned at the Wooden Spur Saturday evening, Oct. 10, with a fish breakfast Sunday morning.

Arrangements have been made for the use of the Dollar Ski house and with Art Pyne for the public address system.

The chamber will furnish trophies and prizes and a police car escort for the event.

Thank you letters were read from Fred Thevonor, mayor of Eureka, Calif., who was in Ketchum during Wagon Days; and from the Greater Boise Chamber of Commerce.

John A. Davies, who conducted the meeting in the absence of President Gene Miller and Vice President Stanley Priesen, reported on plans for November the highway east of Jerome, for which an estimate of $150 has been submitted, would be tabled until the next meeting.

Pyrah reported the chamber had received a complimentary ticket for the coming season's concerts of the Wood River Community Concert association. He asked the chamber for a leave of absence in order to campaign for the seat of state senator, for which he is a candidate on the Democratic ticket.

making political capital" of the Teton project that might endanger bi-partisan support. He said he and Gov. Cliff Hansen of Wyoming and George Clyde of Utah had all supported the project.

Harding said Smylie doesn't understand the bi-partisan spirit of eastern Idaho elected officials and water leaders. He said Republicans have attended eastern Idaho Democratic dinners in the past and will be included in Saturday's tour.

Harding said Udall, Rep. Mike Kirwon, D. O., and Assistant Secretary of Interior John Carver and himself, accompanied by local water leaders and elected officials of both parties will float down the river along the reservoir site.

He said Udall and Rep. Kirwon will address a Saturday night Democratic dinner.

"I am confident," said Harding, "that again we will have present a number of water users and elected officials including Democrats, Republicans and Independents who have worked hard for eastern Idaho water development in general, and for the lower Teton project in particular."

While Harding was answering Smylie's statement on the Teton project, his opponent, George Hansen, was campaigning in Teton county.

Hansen criticized Harding for failure to support a constitutional amendment aimed at nullifying supreme court decisions declaring compulsory school Bible reading laws unconstitutional.

He said Harding had refused to sign a resolution to allow the Becker amendment to be brought to a house vote.

"This amendment would restore God to His rightful place in government without allowing socialism," said Hansen.

"I would be happy to sign because I believe it is necessary to our constitutional form of government inasmuch as the Declaration of Independence declares our rights are God-given."

Carolyn Braun, Stevens Repeat Nuptial Vows

SHOSHONE, Sept. 24 — Carolyn Braun, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Braun, Shoshone, became the bride of Ronald Stevens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Verne Stevens, Bliss, Aug. 15 at the St. Elizabeth Catholic church, Gooding.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. William Ordway, Gooding, before a background setting of pink and white gladioli at the altar. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride's gown, fashioned with Chantilly lace bodice with a scalloped neckline edged with rhinestones and long fly-point sleeves, featured a full skirt with a front tiered section of ruffles of illusion net and Chantilly lace edged with rhinestones. This ruffled panel of Chantilly lace was also edged with rhinestones in a simulated chapel train.

Her bridal bouquet was of pink roses, which she carried on a pink ribbon. The lace cover was borrowed from a friend, Mrs. Lyle Potthast, Twin Falls. The bride wore a blue garter, borrowed from Mrs. Potthast, and carried a handkerchief which she borrowed from her grandmother, Mrs. Pete Mansel, Malheur.

Maid of honor was Carolyn Loucka, Gooding. She wore a yellow satin dress and carried white carnations.

Mrs. Ernest Brown and John Alexander, Gooding, sang a duet. Organist was Danny Harbaugh, Gooding.

James Braun, north Shoshone, brother of the bride, was best man. Ushers were Donald Schroeder, Buhl, and Dennis Everett, Shoshone, both cousins of the bride.

The bridegroom's mother wore a two-piece navy blue linen suit with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The bride's mother wore a white nylon jersey frock with yellow flowered jacket and white accessories. Her corsage was white carnations.

A reception was held in the church basement following the ceremony.

The three-tiered wedding cake was centered on the serving table which was covered with a white linen cloth. The cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom.

and bridegroom and was decorated by Mrs. A. W. Blissett, Gooding.

Mrs. Gordon Braun, north Shoshone, cousin of the bride, cut and served the cake. Mrs. Jerry Stevens, Yellowstone Park, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, served the punch, and Mrs. Ervin Braun, north Shoshone, aunt of the bride, served coffee.

Serving were Mrs. Arnold Schroeder, Buhl, and Mrs. Adolph Braun, Shoshone, both aunts of the bride, and Mrs. Chris Wageman and Mrs. Tony Palanco.

Wanda Schroeder, Buhl, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. Kathy Everett, Gooding, reported the books had been audited. Paula Malone reported on Grand council held in Pocatello. Vicki Votick's librarian report was "Afternoon on the hill."

Beth Seale and Linda Seale were birthday anniversary girls. A gift was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Stroud by the honored queen in appreciation of their work with the Bethel.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Torte, were served on a table covered with lace and centered with an arrangement of poinsettias flanked by white tapers in chrysanthemum. Cynthia Ridgway and Mrs. Louella Scherer poured.

Lesson Given
SPRINGDALE, Sept. 24 — Mrs. Horace Coltrin presented the service lesson for the LDS ward primary officers and teachers at the home of Mrs. Billy Kidd.

Refreshments were served. Regular primary meetings are held at 4:15 p.m. each Tuesday with officers meeting at 3:30 p.m.

Barbara Marks, Luke Exchange Nuptial Vows

Barbara Jo Marks, daughter of Mrs. Vivian Cook Marks, Charlotte, N.C., and Norman E. Luke, son of Mrs. Emma S. Luke and the late C. L. Luke, Twin Falls, were united in marriage Aug. 28 in rites performed at the Idaho Falls LDS temple.

An open house was held at the home of the bridegroom—that evening.

The bride wore a gown of silk organza over bridal satin appliqued with Chantilly lace on the scalloped neckline and down the front of the fitted bodice to the hemline of the skirt. The gown was enhanced with long fly point sleeves and a long chapel train. Her shoulder-length veil of illusion was held by a tiara of pearls. She carried a bouquet of white orchids surrounded by a cascade of gladioli.

Marilyn Smith was maid of honor and Cheri Arma and Shelly Smith were bridesmaids. Each wore a taffeta sheath ensemble. Flower girls were Suzette Rogers and Kristin Smith, nieces of the bridegroom.

Larry Arma, Jr., was best man.

Assisting with the entertainment were Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Luke, Mr. and Mrs. Larry H. Arma, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Rogers, Mrs. Martin O. Grandall and Mrs. Garard Klomp.

The bride is a graduate of Charlotte college, where she is employed as a secretary. The bridegroom is a graduate of Twin Falls high school, attended Idaho State university and the University of Idaho, where he is affiliated with the Delta Chi. He fulfilled a two-year mission for the LDS church in the central Atlantic states.

The couple left immediately for Charlotte, where they were feasted at a reception in the LDS chapel. They will reside in Charlotte this winter.

Mrs. Schlange Presents Topic

FILED, Sept. 24 — Mrs. Otto Schlange led the devotional service and presented the topic, "Christian preparation of children for school," to members of the Immanuel Lutheran Women's Missionary league at her home.

The group studied the proposed revised constitution which will be presented at the Lutheran zone rally in October.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Schlange.

Pre-Holiday Tea Is Slated

KING HILL, Sept. 24—Holiday decorations were made at an all-day meeting of the Glenn Perry Altar society of Our Lady of Limerick Catholic church at the home of Mrs. W. W. Knox. The decorations were made in preparation of the annual Pre-Holiday tea to be held Nov. 7 from 3 to 4 p.m. at Pitch Park ranch. The members voted to give toward the Homecoming Glenn Perry high school float.

Mrs. L. C. King assisted Mrs. Knox with serving refreshments.

Gooding Civic Club Slates Pancake Supper

GOODING, Sept. 24—Members of the Gooding Civic club voted to sponsor a pancake supper election day, Nov. 3. Mrs. J. E. Thompson is chairman and Mrs. Harold LaCroix is co-chairman. Correspondence was received from the Gooding Memorial hospital auxiliary and from the Patient's Service auxiliary of the Tuberculosis hospital. Mrs. William Mink reported on the wading pool project and the family picnic held in August.

Mrs. Ed Christopherson will serve as chairman of a committee to make tray favors to patients at the Tuberculosis hospital, with Mrs. Duane Johnson as co-chairman.

Mrs. Beryl Bevercombe reported on the float entered in the parade at the Gooding county fair. Mrs. Dennis Heeb, Mrs. Jerry Heeb and Mrs. Bevercombe were named to a committee to meet with the merchant's bureau relative to the welcome wagon project.

Mrs. Christopherson and Mrs. Bill Skauge plan to attend a hospital auxiliary luncheon. Mrs. Skauge, president of the group, conducted an installation ceremony for new members. She read a short history of Gooding and presented each woman a rose.

New members welcomed to the club include Mrs. Christopherson, Mrs. James Lockett, Mrs. Heeb, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Norma Killinger, Mrs. Edwin Becker, Mrs. Ed Stevens, Mrs. James Varin and Mrs. Robert Weinstron.

Guests were Mrs. John McLaughlin and Mrs. Chord Barry. Mrs. Arden Stutzman was hostess. The next meeting will be Oct. 5 at the home of Mrs. LaCroix, with Mrs. Thompson as co-hostess.

Past Noble Grands Convene

Past Noble Grands, Primrose Rebekah lodge, held its first meeting of the fall season at the home of Mrs. Dale Bowman. The thought for the day was given by Mrs. Bowman. "Examples are better than precepts."

Mrs. B. Smith spoke on plans for the Rebekah bazaar set for Oct. 3. A memorial gift was sent to the IOOF home in memory of Margaret C. Lemon.

A gift was presented to Mrs. Treva Bell. This program was directed by Mrs. Inez Fletcher.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Bell, Mrs. Alice Shiffer and Mrs. O. H. Jiggins. Refreshment committee members include Mrs. E. V. Hatzfeld, Mrs. O. King and Mrs. Sarah Dameron.

Miss Garrison, Armstrong Wed In Local Rites

Donna Garrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oma Garrison, and David Armstrong, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Armstrong, of Twin Falls, were united in marriage Sept. 23 in a ceremony performed at the Methodist church.

The Rev. Henry Gornhardt performed the nuptials. The bride wore a pink floor-length gown with all pink accessories. Her slimy pink chiffon hat was enhanced with a stiffened circular veil. Her jewelry was a pearl and diamond necklace. She carried a trailing tulle bouquet of pink pom-pom chrysanthemums accented with tear drop pearls and tied together with velvet tubing.

Maid of honor was Patricia Malone. Best man was Kelly Carlson and ushers were Randy Mito and Lynn Baird. Robert Smith was soloist, accompanied by James Adamson, organist.

A reception was held in the basement of the church. Kathy McInroy was in charge of the guest book. Those serving include Olanne Matthews, Bambi Monn, and Reta Tennent. Gifts were displayed by Louisa Watson and Toni Bear.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of Twin Falls high school. Armstrong will continue his education at Idaho State university this fall. The couple will reside in Pocatello.

Eden United Presbyterian Women Convene

EDEN, Sept. 24—Eden United Presbyterian Women's organization met at the home of Mrs. Ward Volkers, Hunt.

Program on "Evangelism and national mission" was presented by Mrs. Austin Matheney, assisted by Mrs. Violet Porter. Purpose of this study was to consider whether the women's organization, as an arm of the church, really conforms to what Christ intended His church to be.

A letter was read from Mrs. Laura Holman, urging all UPW groups to have their new officers attend the Presbyterian fall workshop to be held Oct. 28 at the Hazelton Presbyterian church. Members were reminded to plan to attend the "Church and society" conference sponsored by synod Oct. 9 through 12 in Boise.

Least coin collection was taken by Mrs. Curtis Metcalf to be used for educational purposes. Summer offering for hospital work was also collected.

Further plans were made for the bazaar to be held election day in conjunction with a dinner at the Eden American Legion hall. The group decided to include cooked food as well as handwork in the bazaar section. Guests were Mrs. Thomas Mc-

Operation of Satellite Has Been Stopped

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24 (AP)—The space agency reports that a jamming of the solar paddles has halted operations of the Nimbus weather satellite after it had taken more than 27,000 pictures.

The national aeronautics and space administration said Wednesday that the jamming prevented the paddles from rotating toward the sun and this, in turn, halted use of solar power to recharge batteries that operated Nimbus' electronic equipment.

The anticipated life of the satellite, launched Aug. 28, had been six months.

NASA reported that the Syncom 3 communications satellite, hovering above the Pacific in preparation for telecasting the Olympic Games to the United States from Japan, comes within five seconds of matching exactly the Earth's rotational speed.

Youth Found Tied With Legs Severed

BLANDFORD, England, Sept. 24 (AP)—A 17-year-old student from an exclusive boys' school was found near a railway track yesterday bound and gagged, with both feet severed. Police said he apparently had been tied to the track and struck by a train.

Authorities ruled the possibility that the youth was the victim of a school hazing incident.

Stephen Hargreaves told workmen who found him, "They tied me up." He could say no more. The men cut the rope from his wrists and removed the gag from his mouth. He was reported in fair condition in the Salisbury Royal Infirmary.

From marks beside the railway track it appeared that after the train passed over the boy's legs, he managed to crawl up a 20-foot embankment to a main road. The workers found him with his head hanging through wire railings at the side of the road.

Hargreaves is a student at the fashionable public school here. Although such schools in England are not public, they actually are exclusive, private schools.

Victimization is one of the major problems of the British public schools. It has military officers and a bishop among its governors.

The student had been missing for two days.

Strike at Prison Ends

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Sept. 24 (AP)—The day-old strike of inmates at the Washington state penitentiary ended yesterday when the inmates went back to work "with no strings attached."

Warden Robert Rhy said the ringleaders of the strike were still housed in the maximum security section of the prison and will appear before the adjustment committee at a later date. The adjustment committee is made up of in-prison officials and prison personnel.

The entire prison population of about 1,300 was locked in cells Tuesday after a number of prisoners refused to go to their jobs after breakfast.

The prisoners listed a variety of "little complaints," but Rhy said he was "not too interested."

He banned the complaints as a result of boredom and their dislike at being here.

Light Bulb Sale Set for Wendell

WENDELL, Sept. 24—The annual light bulb and candy sale for the Wendell Lions club will be held Oct. 19, report Douglas Schrank and Charles Trelon, co-chairmen of the project.

The next ladies night dinner meeting will be held Oct. 5. Ben Morgan showed colored slides of a trip down the Salmon river on a rubber raft at the club meeting this week. He was introduced by William Dugan.

Morgan accompanied a group of Explorer Scouts on the 130-mile river trip. Guests were the Rev. and Mrs. Edward V. Hargreaves and honorary club members, Mrs. Elmer Miller and Mrs. W. B. Enkle.

A barbershop trio, composed of M. E. Scheel, Morgan and Dugan, sang.

FAMED SINGER ILL

CHICAGO, Sept. 24 (AP)—Famed singer Mahalia Jackson, who introduced gospel singing to millions across the world, is seriously ill with a heart ailment.

Each year we stock one or two shoes that are every bit as tough as the little guys who wear them. This year we have chosen the trail blazer shown above. It is built to withstand the toughest, most merciless kind of beating any kid can dish out. Come in and look it over. Idaho Republicans Need Rallying Point to Win

By RICHARD CHARNOCK
BOISE, Sept. 24 (AP)—Republicans trying to win Idaho's electoral votes for Barry Goldwater need a rallying point to knit their forces together.

Despite the presidential nominee's visit to Boise Sept. 19, they are finding some privately admit, that the electorate's yet is not exactly electrified by their candidate.

And part of the reason, they say, may lie in the campaign strategy and tactics of Goldwater's own dedicated forces. Complaints about the activities of so-called "amateurs" in the movement are becoming more frequent.

There even is talk of defection to the Lyndon Johnson camp among some of the party workers. So far this is strictly "talk," but usually reliable sources say at least six of the younger leaders in the party are on the verge of bolting to Johnson.

Those running the Goldwater show in Idaho seem convinced they are going about it the right way and still remain confident of a Goldwater victory in November. Some more experienced hands, however, are expressing some doubts.

For one thing, say the pros, campaign materials arrived slightly late this time. They say a check was sent to national headquarters to purchase bumper stickers, campaign buttons and other materials and somebody lost it.

Payment was stopped on the check and a new one was issued—but it took several weeks, say the pros, for the national headquarters to discover what had happened.

To win an election, most political observers agree, takes a lot of hard work, particularly at the precinct level.

The Republicans have formed committees in several states, including Idaho, to attract Democrats and Independents who can't buy the Johnson philosophy. But, claim some of the disident pros in the party, the Goldwater organization is "chasing away" not only some potential votes but potential help within the ranks of the GOP.

As a case in point, one source told of a young Republican meeting planned in a county nominally Democratic. Those calling the meeting wanted to advertise the fact but were persuaded not to.

The reason? "Some liberals might show up—and we don't want them."

Another blow to the cause, and some party workers are calling it "the last straw"—was the appointment of Owen Barnett to the GOP's national executive committee.

Those who know Mrs. Barnett and what she has done for the party the past few years feel she deserved the appointment. But, say some, not at the expense of Harley Markham. When Idaho's national committeewoman moved up to the executive committee, his national committeeman stepped down.

This, of course, is all tied up with the pro-governor, anti-governor feud that has been going on in the Idaho GOP. But, nevertheless, it is having its effect.

Goldwater, say his followers, has always put great store on party organization. His campaign for the presidency includes a "vote quota" program in which each precinct in the country has to deliver a certain number of votes. If everybody delivers, say the planners, a Goldwater victory is assured.

To make this plan work, however, takes the active effort of the precinct committeemen. An intra-party battle at this stage of the game could hurt this effort.

As one GOP precinct worker put it: "I'll probably work my precinct more carefully than I ever have before. But frankly, my heart's not in it. I'll go door to door all right, but I'm just not up to a tiring job any more. And the always been for Goldwater, too."

Fire Noted

FAIRFIELD, Sept. 24—Sparks from the sawdust incinerator at the Wendell Mill started a fire Tuesday afternoon at the rodeo grounds adjacent to the mill. The Fairfield fire department was called but workers from the mill had extinguished the fire before they arrived. A few fence posts were scorched.

'65 Chevrolet Impala Sport Sedan

Chevrolet Impala '65

One look at it and—presto—last year's crop of cars seem like something that happened a long time ago. It's longer, lower, wider—with the kind of interior comforts that'll have many an expensive car wondering why it didn't think of them first. More shoulder room, more leg room up front and (thanks to a smaller floor tunnel) more foot room too. Curved side windows, rich new fabrics and an instrument panel that's a conversation piece all by itself (in the Impala series it has the look of hand-rubbed walnut). In fact, just about everything's new right down to the road. And even that'll seem newer because this year Chevrolet's Jet-smooth ride is smoother than ever. But if all this seems like a bit too much to remember, don't try. Just take a drive at your dealer's. It'll all become unforgettable.

'65 Chevelle Malibu Super Sport Coupe

Chevelle Malibu '65

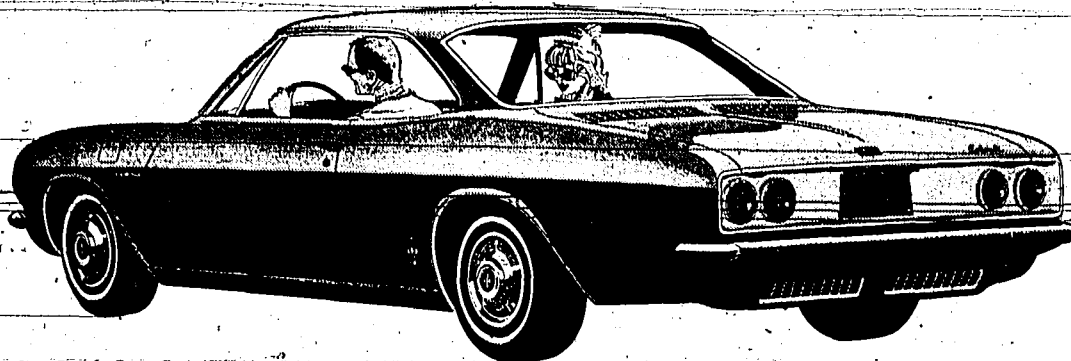

New style, new ride—and plenty of V8 stuff. Here are all the things that have made Chevelle America's most popular new-sized car—plus some new surprises that promise to make it come on stronger than ever for '65. Like those cleaner, folder lines. Like the silky way it skims over the choppiest roads. (Thanks to softer coil springs and other suspension system refinements, Chevelle now rides with a serenity you'd expect only in a bigger, heavier car.) Like V8 power that'll make you think we stole some of Corvette's stuff—which we did. All told, five different power plants are now available from a quieter six to a V8 that comes on with 300 horses strong. Some people might have expected us to stand pat after introducing a car this successful last year. One short drive will show you how wrong they were.

'65 Chevy II Nova 4-Door Sedan

Chevy II Nova '65

It may very well be the expensive-est looking thrift car you've ever laid eyes on. But thrifty it is. The big difference this year being that Chevy II's marvelous mechanical efficiency now comes decked out in a debonair new look. And to keep things in stride under the hood, there's a new range of six engines available, no less, including a new 300-hp V8. Of course, you still get those famous Chevy II maintenance reducers—like self-adjusting brakes, long-lived exhaust system, battery-saving Delcotron generator. But if you go by all the fine new features, you could get the idea that saving you money was about the last thing we had in mind when we built this one. And in a way it was. Right up until we pasted the price sticker on the window.

New top-of-the-line Corvair Corsa Sport Coupe

Corvair Corsa '65

There's never been a Corvair—or any other car—like it. The entire line now sports a totally new body by Fisher, styled with fresh, sophisticated flair that would set a European's pulse fluttering. The longer, wider design gives all Corvair closed models a thin-line hardtop roof, accented by frameless curved side windows. It also allows more shoulder and entrance room. And to go with the racier look, there's up to 180 hp available in the new Corsa series, up to 140 hp in the Monza and 500 series. Also a flatter riding independent suspension system, bigger self-adjusting brakes, more responsive steering—all solidly buttressed by a wider road stance for '65. Truth is, you've got to drive this one to believe it.

Venezuelans Wonder if New Chief Is Lucky

CARACAS, Venezuela, Sept. 24 (AP)—President Raul Leoni has looked pretty good saddling the broncos, but how'll he do riding them?

Many Venezuelans, wondering whether their new president is a political genius or just plain lucky, are asking this question. A hint won't be long in coming. The Caracas guerrillas, who hold a key to stability in this country, have announced the start of a new "liberation" war. And by mid-October, culmination of months of negotiation, a new constitution, government will be in operation.

These two developments, likely to provide critical tests to measure the big, affable Leoni, in his six months in office, nothing extraordinarily exciting or difficult has stirred this country wracked by almost continuous storms during the five years of Romulo Betancourt's incumbency.

The guerrillas still are operating in the mountains and villages of the interior, although not as spectacularly as before. Many think the terrorist bands are almost as busy as before, but that Leoni has weakened their propaganda worth by treating more conservatively to their activities than Betancourt did.

There's nothing really exciting to Venezuelans about prosperity. By mid-1964, foreign exchange reserves were up to 100 million dollars, a gain of 130 million dollars over mid-1963 figures. The sum represents nearly a third of all gold and foreign exchange holdings in Latin America. On a per capita basis, these reserves are higher than those in the United States.

Political stability is essential to the preservation and stimulation of this economic expansion. This is why, since taking office in March, Leoni and his lieutenants have been busy forming a coalition to give the ruling, moderately left, Accion Democratica party the congressional majority it needs to legislate without trouble. A coalition is necessary because the last general election gave the government only 49 of the 120 seats in the chamber of deputies and 23 of 92 in the senate.

The new political partnership with two ex-rivals, the leftist Republican Democratic union and the central national Democratic front, should be installed by mid-October.

This is the forecast of the coalition's chief architect, Interior Minister Gonzalo Barrios, who says "no dramatic national policy changes" are contemplated under the new regime.

Atlantic Monthly Backs Johnson For Reelection

NEW YORK, Sept. 24 (AP)—The Atlantic Monthly announced Wednesday it is endorsing President Johnson. It is the first time since Edward Weeks became editor 65 years ago that the magazine has taken a position in a presidential election.

"In the election this fall... we stand for the reelection of President Lyndon B. Johnson," Weeks wrote. "We admire the President for the continuity with which he has maintained our foreign policy... respect the quiet confidence which he has engendered among American businessmen and in the unions."

"We believe that as the first southerner to occupy the White House since the Civil War, the President will bring to the varied problems of civil rights a power of conciliation which will prevent us from stumbling down the road taken by South Africa."

"The firmness and the common sense with which he pressed for the passage of the tax cut and the bill on civil rights recall a remark which the late President Kennedy made to a trusted reporter when he was stumpin' California in the primary. 'Of us all,' said JFK, 'Lyndon Johnson is the best qualified for the office.'"

Council Will Let Women Attend Meet

VATICAN CITY, Sept. 24 (AP)—Mother Mary Luke, an American and superior general of the convent of St. Joseph of Mount Carmel, Dubuque, Ia., was named Wednesday as one of 16 women who will attend an ecumenical council for the first time in history.

The ecumenical council press office released the names of the new auditors to the world gathering of the Roman Catholic church hierarchy. Eight women heads of religious orders and seven Catholic lay women were invited to attend. Mother Mary Luke was the only American.

"The women were chosen to represent all the nuns, sisters and lay groups of the world," the council announcement said. They will listen but not take part in council deliberations.

Mother Luke is also president of the Conference of Mother Superiors of Women's Institutes.

The women will be the first to attend an ecumenical council since the first one was held 1,700 years ago. Pope Paul VI had announced before the opening of the third session of his council that women would be invited. The women auditors will be able to follow those council sessions in which topics of particular interest to them are discussed.

Restyling Is Featured on '65 Fairlanes

DEARBORN, Mich., Sept. 24—Most popular intermediate-size car on America's highways, the Fairlane is completely restyled inside and out for 1965 and has been given a big car ride to match its new big car look.

"Fairlane also shows an increasing popularity faster than any other segment of the automobile market," said E. P. Laux, Ford division general sales manager. "This growth, from 14 percent of 1964, reflects rising recognition that intermediate-size cars offer an ideal combination of roominess with a fun-to-drive size."

Laux said that the Fairlane has a more substantial look and clean-flowing lines for 1965. Ford's new "hardtop" front fenders and "tasteful" body sculpturing add a lively note.

Inside the Fairlane engine lineup is a new standard equipment, 300-cubic-inch six-cylinder 120-horsepower. The engine has a seven-main-bearing crankshaft for smooth operation and long life.

Three-speed manual, four-speed manual and automatic transmissions also are available to meet nearly any preference for performance or economy.

All eight Fairlane models, including two and four-door sedans, hardtops and station wagons, will be introduced in Ford dealerships Friday.

The big-car appearance of the 1965 Fairlane is highlighted by the higher fender line. The sculptured metal treatment which carries the entire length of the car is accentuated on the 600 models by a bright full-length side molding with a black-and-silver painted molding. The wide look from the front is accentuated by the horizontal bar treatment of the grille and the rectangular headlamp housings which give the appearance of brushed aluminum.

For the sports-minded, four-speed of cruise-o-matic gear shift levers in the sports coupe are floor-mounted.

Stationwagons feature a new textured metal floor panel which is coated with a special vinyl-type material that has outstanding resistance to scuffing and scratching.

Old, New Worlds Clash Over Religious Freedom Question

VATICAN CITY, Sept. 24—The old world and the new clashed Wednesday at the clerical council of the Roman Catholic church over the question of religious freedom.

Three American cardinals urged the council fathers to declare the church's support of the right of religious liberty of all people, non-Christian as well as Christian.

Their appeals for approval of a council declaration on the issue touched off a heated counter-attack by two Italian conservative cardinals. Two Spaniards backed the Italians. A Canadian and a Chilean lined up with the Americans.

In the council hall in St. Peter's Basilica, the three U.S. cardinals in pleading the cause of religious liberty called on the church to face the issue squarely and grant the right of every man to his own religion.

Richard James Cardinal Cushing of Boston, speaking on behalf of the American hierarchy, broke into English during the Latin debate to say such a declaration would safeguard "decent respect for the opinion of mankind."

"We want to give to others else the council does not have much importance," he said. Cardinal Ritter indicated he was in favor of an even more outspoken declaration. He said the text should clearly state that every man has the right of religious freedom.

In an important vote, the council fathers accepted by a margin of 1,027 to 292 a proposal that the College of Bishops approved in a vote Tuesday would have in the pontiff's power over the universal church.

Chinese, Soviet Youths Call Each Other Names at Forum

MOSCOW, Sept. 24—They came officially to denounce the West. But Chinese and Soviet delegates to a Kremlin-sponsored world youth forum Wednesday called each other names.

Peking delegate Chu Li-yang called his Russian hosts "undemocratic" parliamentary bullies.

Soviet delegates accused the communist Chinese of undermining the conference and slandering Kremlin leaders.

The outbreak of the Sino-Soviet battle for world communist leadership continued to dominate the gathering which met to condemn racism, imperialism and colonialism—and mostly the United States.

But the U.S. got little attention in Wednesday's public session.

Chu told the delegates he had great difficulty in getting permission to speak from the Russian-led conference officials. He accused the Soviets of writing conference resolutions without letting the Chinese have their say.

He claimed Peking's men have been ignored, refused permission to speak and had their words mistranslated when they spoke.

"We have been refused the right to express our opinions without any possible justification. This is completely contradictory democratic procedure," Chu said.

He scoffed at the conference adoption of a resolution—written in closed door session—denouncing the West for interference in Cyprus.

"We would not like to vote on a document without having it studied carefully beforehand," Chu said.

Russian delegates told their allies and listed to Chu like children being told to swallow cat food.

Despite Chinese objections, they put the Cyprus resolution

WHOLESALE PLUS 10 PERCENT

To Every Family in Magic Valley:

This week inaugurates Okay's new food pricing policy in Twin Falls. On Sunday night, all grocery items in all departments were marked down to the wholesale cost. From now on every item in the store will be sold on this "cost basis." You pay the 10 per cent markup charge when you pass through the check-out stand.

We believe this to be an entirely new concept of food retailing in Twin Falls and will result in truly lower food prices for the housewives of Magic Valley! We know you will be amazed when you visit Okay and see this new price policy in action. You'll be pleased at the really small 10 per cent mark up charge which must be made to cover the normal costs of operation such as taxes, wages, heat, lights, etc.

Every item in Okay's enormous stocks have been marked down to the wholesale price and are guaranteed by a $1,000 Surety Bond. This means our books are always open for your inspection and prices as marked are guaranteed to be no higher than the original wholesale cost.

This is our personal invitation to you to come and visit us at the Okay this week, participate in this new way of buying all your food needs. See the extra cash-savings you'll make when you pay ONLY 10 PERCENT instead of the usual higher mark-up charges. This is truly the new way of shopping that actually saves you money!

The People's Food Bank Plan will allow your family to buy at wholesale cost plus a nominal 10% operational fee. Each of Okay's customers will be given an opportunity to participate. Until then... your "courtesy card" entitling you to make all your food purchases at wholesale will be given free of charge when you visit Okay.

Sincerely, Lee Fillmore

POPE PAUL VI carries bust-shaped reliquary containing purported skull fragments of St. Andrew, to altar in St. Peter's Basilica in Vatican City Wednesday in opening a special prayer period. It was a gesture of friendship by the Pope to the Greek Orthodox faith in a preliminary to sending the skull fragments back to Greece. St. Andrew was a brother of St. Peter. The reliquary of Constantinople (Constantinople, spiritual center of all Orthodox faiths, are regarded as his successors. (AP wirephoto via cable from Rome)

Russ, Arabs Plan Joint Land Project

MOSCOW, Sept. 24 (AP) — The Soviet Union and the United Arab Republic announced plans Wednesday to spend more than 300 million dollars transforming Egyptian desert into farmland and the Arab nation into an industrial power.

The announcement came in a joint communique, distributed by the official Soviet news agency, Tass, ending the Moscow visit of U.A.R. Premier Ali Sabry. It was issued after Sabry departed for Prague, Czechoslovakia.

The communique sketched the plans for spending the 300 million dollar loan granted during Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's mission last May to Cairo and the leftovers of a 1958 aid pro-

Bigger Feet

TOKYO, Sept. 24 (AP) — Tokyo shoe shine men have ruled the price of a shine from 50 to 70 yen (about 30 cents) in anticipation of a flood of foreign visitors for the Olympic games.

Their reason: "Foreigners have bigger feet."

Travelers Insurance Groups Give Traffic Accident Facts

In the United States last year more than 43,000 men, women and children rode, drove or walked to their death in our frenzied, swirling traffic to set an all-time peak of highway carnage and tragedy for this or any other country. This year the traffic toll is running even higher, headed for a grisly new record. How old were the drivers of those death cars? How old were the victims? What type of vehicle was involved? What were the road and weather conditions? These charts from the Travelers Insurance companies give the stark facts. What they don't answer, of course, is why people act the way they do in traffic.
